

The FACE of TRIAL LAWYERS

From left: Sam Hibbs, Steven Schuetze, Farnaz Salessi, Dane Gilliam, Greg Bentley, Keith More, Clare Lucich, Jaimi Groothuis, Nico Mamone, Braydon Bentley

BENTLEY & MORE LLP

Southern California personal injury attorneys Greg Bentley and Keith More have extensive experience handling complex litigation in a wide range of practice areas including product liability, workers compensation, car accidents, and serious injury. With the resources and experience to handle even the most complex civil actions and injury claims, the firm is comprised of an experienced trial team with personal injury, insurance law, and workers' compensation expertise. "We specialize in difficult 'crossover' cases that touch multiple practice areas, including assisting injured workers get the care they need as well as litigating against the third party that caused the harm," say the attorneys.

From complex personal injury, governmental entity liability to insurance bad faith cases, Bentley & More has earned a reputation for getting exceptional outcomes for their clients. No stranger to accolades, Greg Bentley and Keith More are recognized as Super Lawyers top 50 in OC and Top 100 in Southern California. Recently, More was named the 2022 Lawyer of the Year for Workers' Compensation Law – Claimants in Orange County.

Of course, the firm's success stories speak for themselves: While working on a multistory commercial building, one client tripped over company supplies and fell 25 feet, resulting in quadriplegia and permanent disability. The firm achieved an award for $44.1M in damages. In another case, a client was awarded $7.45M for injuries sustained when a company's steel beam fell, striking his head and back. In yet another case, the firm secured a $30M catastrophic injury award for a client who was struck in the face by a truck driveshaft that sheared off and careened through her windshield. These, and so many more client stories exemplify the dedication and tenacity of Bentley & More, attorneys who steadfastly refuse to quit until justice is served.

Known as passionate advocates, Bentley & More are described by clients as "aggressive and confident, yet deeply compassionate." A secret to their success? "We work closely with our clients to deeply understand their lives and needs – we tell their story," says Bentley.

"We truly are helping people at their worst moments and creating a better life for them," adds More.

4931 Birch Street, Newport Beach | bentleymore.com | P 949.870.3800 | F 714.835.5548